

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen
Indiana's telephone Privacy law protections.
I have not had one call since the law went into effect.
Please don't try to fix something that is not broke in Indiana.